Noah in the 21st Century
And we thought we had problems! If Noah had lived in the United States in the last ten years, the story may have gone something like this: And the Lord spoke to Noah and said, "In one year, I am going to make it rain and cover the whole earth with water until all flesh is destroyed. But I want you to save the righteous people and two of every kind of living thing on earth. Therefore, I am commanding you to build an ark." In fear and trembling, Noah took the plans and agreed to build the ark. "Remember," said the Lord, "you must complete the Ark and bring everything aboard in one year." Exactly one year later, fierce storm clouds covered the earth and all the seas of the earth went into a tumult. The Lord saw that Noah was sitting in his front yard weeping. "Noah!" He shouted. "Where is the Ark?" "Lord, please forgive me," cried Noah. "I did my best, but there were big problems." "First, I had to get a permit for construction, and your plans did not meet the building codes. I had to hire an engineering firm and redraw the plans. Then I got into a fight with OSHA over whether or not the Ark needed a sprinkler system and approved floatation devices. Then, my neighbor objected, claiming I was violating zoning ordinances by building the Ark in my front yard, so I had to get a variance from the city planning commission." "Then, I had problems getting enough wood for the Ark because there was a ban on cutting trees to protect the Spotted Owl. I finally convinced the U.S. Forest Service that I really needed the wood to save the owls. However, the Fish and Wildlife Service won't let me take the 2 owls. The carpenters formed a union and went on strike. I had to negotiate a settlement with the National Labor Relations Board before anyone would pick up a saw or hammer. Now, I have 16 carpenters on the Ark, but still no owls." "When I started rounding up the other animals, an animal rights group sued me. They objected to me taking only two of each kind aboard. This suit is pending. Meanwhile, the EPA notified me that I could not complete the Ark without filing an environmental impact statement on your proposed flood. They didn't take very kindly to the idea that they had no jurisdiction over the conduct of the Creator of the Universe. Then, the Army Corps of Engineers demanded a map of the proposed flood plain. I sent them a globe." "Right now, I am trying to resolve a complaint filed with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission that I am practicing discrimination by not taking atheists aboard. The IRS has seized my assets, claiming that I'm building the Ark in preparation to flee the country to avoid paying taxes. I just got a notice from the state that I owe them some kind of user tax and failed to register the Ark as a 'recreational water craft.' And finally, the ACLU got the courts to issue an injunction against further construction of the Ark, saying that since

God is flooding the earth, it's a religious event and therefore unconstitutional. I really don't think I can finish the Ark for another five or six years." Noah waited. The sky began to clear, the sun began to shine, and the seas began to calm. A rainbow arched across the sky. Noah looked up hopefully, "You mean you're not going to destroy the earth, Lord?" "No," He said sadly. "I don't have to. The government already has."

A true college football fan never posts "fire the coach" because of a bad game, this is sad! If you were a true fan, you would take into account the hours, months and years it took to become that coach and the amount of dedication it took to become a player of that organization. Here is the deal, if you think you can do it better, do not use your fingers on Facebook to bash, sue you legs to get out on the field or just hush!

Call the manager, or the police or just give them some money. I see it happening a lot during the holidays at store parking lots. It is getting to be scary. What would you do?

I received a small increase to my Social Security with an increase to my Medicare premiums. The increase has nothing to do with the new tax bill passed by Congress with not a Democrat voting for it.

I use my son's credit card all the time. It has a clearly male name on it and I'm an elderly female. I have yet to have a cashier or clerk ask me for any ID when using it. So don't hold your breath on getting stores to start doing that.

You have to break a lot of traffic laws to get your license suspended. If you are poor and cannot pay the consequences for your infractions, may I suggest you drive properly and lawfully. Give them a one-time amnesty at most.

This is still America, even in 2018. We cannot yet escape to the solar-power station on the moon or Mars. We need to live together and stop shooting each other's kids every night. There are other careers than dealing drugs until jail or grubbing in the ditches until the accident puts us on disability. Some options are: create a career for ourselves, get a job working for "the company with benefits" or write a book about our mental problems. We don't need to pay taxes to both the government and the local gang, we can move. It is America in 2018, not 1950s Russia, where jobs were assigned. There is hope.

A guy robs a bank and after making his getaway, a rich lady says to the bank president, "Why on earth would that poor devil rob a bank when there are a thousand perfectly legal ways to steal?"

Who is a panhandler? A homeless person, military veteran, scam artist, drug addict. What do they do? Hang out in establishments to strike up small talk to let you know they have a problem and are in need of some

After looking at the list of top albums and songs for the year, it's obvious rock 'n' roll is dead. Nothing but rap and pop. Pop is disco re-branded and rap is nothing more than talking . . . by testing the limits of how vulgar, sexist and racist it can be.

against walls, and a bad, never-ending headache. One day, the person finally goes to see the doctor for relief from the constant headache. Doc walks in and sees the person sitting in a chair, banging their head against the wall, and asks what the problem is. "Doc, I gotta get some help for this headache. I've tried everything and it never goes away." The doctor replies, "Maybe, if you stopped banging your head against the wall, your head would feel better." The person replies, "What are you talking about? I don't bang my head against the wall." Sounds like a few political people I know.

Back in the day, if an adult said something to someone's child about their bad behavior and that child told their parents, that child would have been punished for said bad behavior. Today, under the same circumstances, the parent would take offense and want to attack the adult who dared say something to their brat — oops I meant their precious baby.

It seems as if you cannot help anyone or trust them these days. What is going on? People's word does not matter. It does not matter if they are seemingly straight up as a person, a Christian family, or give me a job and a break person. They go along for a while as people you can trust and count on then "stick it to you: No matter how good you are to them. As one citizen of McAlester. "I give up". The only thing I am going to count on these days is my gun! Welcome to the new world. (trust no one) It is a pity isn't it?

Thank you, thank you, thank you I cannot say this enough! My physician due to the opiate epidemic has scaled back my pain medications though I never over taken them, the cut back has been bed as my pain was no longer controlled the way it was before so I tried that Hemp Oil you have in here. I am even forgetting to take my scheduled pain medications and I have informed my doctor that it is working very well for me. Thank you so much! I also noticed that my anxiety is much better too!

money. Why? To fulfill their needs, such as their car is out of gas, broken down a few blocks away, get a cup of coffee or something to eat and the list goes on. How to avoid: walk away, say, "I'm sorry, but I can't help you."

In light of the NFL flag debacle, I am especially grateful for the large American flag placed by a local business on Hwy 69. It stands as a perfect reminder of what America is.

RESOLUTION? WHAT IS YOURS?

What if you chose a Resolution and was actually able to succeed and by doing so you gain Financial Freedom by Helping others with an All Natural Plant Based Product line?

THE WORLD'S BEST HEMP OIL!

Faster, stronger, and more effective, PrimeMyBody's NanoEnhanced Hemp Oil far outpaces tinctures. The advanced technology behind this ground-breaking liquid delivery system makes for precise dosing and immediate effect.

NON GMO • SOY FREE • GLUTEN FREE • cGMP

SIDE BY SIDE COMPARISON

Our pharmaceutical-grade Nano-Enhanced Hemp Oil outperforms the leading pharma brand tincture to create a more stable, single-layer system made from the highest-grade ingredients available, which has shown to increase absorption by 9-10 times. In a test against conventional tincture results published by a leading journal, our Nano-Enhanced Hemp Oil was absorbed in the blood in amounts three times as great as half the dose. In fact, pharmaceutical dosages using both injectable forms and oral forms, has long and well-documented history.

USDA Announces No Actions under Feedstock Flexibility Program

The U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) Commodity Credit Corporation (CCC) announced today that it does not expect to purchase sugar under the Feedstock Flexibility Program for fiscal year (FY) 2018. The CCC is required by law to announce quarterly estimates of sugar to be purchased for the Feedstock Flexibility Program based on crop and consumption forecasts.

Federal law allows sugar processors to obtain loans from USDA with maturities of up to nine months when the sugarcane or sugar beet harvest begins. Upon loan maturity, the sugar processor may repay the loan in full or forfeit the collateral (sugar) to USDA to satisfy the loan.

The Feedstock Flexibility Program was reauthorized by Congress in the 2014 Farm Bill as an option to avoid sugar forfeitures. USDA's Dec. 12, 2017,

World Agricultural Supply and Demand Estimates report (www.usda.gov/oce/commodity/wasde) projects that FY 2018 U.S. ending sugar stocks are unlikely to lead to forfeitures. Therefore, at this time, USDA does not expect to purchase and sell sugar under the Feedstock Flexibility Program for FY 2018. USDA closely monitors domestic sugar stocks, consumption, imports and other sugar market variables on an ongoing basis, and will continue to administer the sugar program as transparently as possible using the latest available data. The next quarterly estimate regarding the Feedstock Flexibility Program will occur on or before April 1, 2018.

NGL Moves Forward With Debt Reduction After Pipeline Sale

Tulsa-based NGL Energy Partners LP announced this week it has completed part of its deleveraging plan using the $300 million in proceeds received from the sale of its 50% interest in Glass Mountain Pipeline LLC. The resulting debt reduction includes a prepayment in full of all its 6.65% senior secured notes due June 19, 2022. The effective interest rate of the senior secured notes was 8.40% at the time of prepayment on December 29, 2017. In accordance with the terms of the senior secured notes, the prepayment included a make-whole premium of approximately $17.5 million, in addition to the outstanding principal balance and accrued interest.

NGL also repurchased nearly $88.7 million in principal amount of its senior unsecured notes in the open market during the quarter ending Dec. 31, 2017. Company leaders called the debt reduction and interest savings a "significant move towards accomplishing NGL's goals of deleveraging the balance sheet and increase its financial flexibility." NGL also expects to close its previously announced $200 million sale of certain Retail Propane assets to DCC LPG on March 31, 2018. The company intends to use the proceeds to further reduce indebtedness.

CAN YOU FIND SOME PEACE IN THE UNEXPECTED?

Thank goodness for that little red book. It reminded me of a few things that are easy to embrace at the very end and the very beginning of the year. But as time wears on, they seem to get lost in the noise of every day life.

By: Gina Stanley

That red book is Holiday Memories, a keepsake that I started during Christmas of 1998. It chronicles our celebrations, meals, gifts and trips from each and every year. Much of it is mundane, as you might expect. Our family is pretty boring, especially in the cuisine department. Literally, the same meal every single Christmas Day for 20 years -- I kid you not. The only change in menu happened this year when we forgot to take my mother-in-law's squash casserole out of the oven and it sat in there, forgotten, for the next two days.

Instead of being lulled into social media at the first of the new year, I sat in a quiet corner and relived some precious memories through that book.

But I started to notice something as I read back through little stories that I would have forgotten otherwise. It wasn't rehearsing the expected plotlines that provided the most entertaining reading. Instead, it was little stories of sadness, hilarity and spontaneity that stirred up the sentimental in me. What brought about a desire to do and be better in this coming year, wasn't the expected, but the extreme.

A knock-down candy cane fight/wrestling match between my toddler boys in front of the entire Christmas Eve church service was humiliating at the time. Now it offers me a funny memory into the innocent, rowdy souls they were back then. I remember how easy it was to be gentle and understanding with a three-year-old who only wanted to show his brother that his candy cane was indeed bigger. Those cotton-top boys of mine have grown into young men who sometimes make it hard to demonstrate patience and grace. But remembering who they were -- and really still are -- made me want to be that better mom from this point on.

And that's really a highlight of this life on earth isn't it? Learning from our mistakes and our successes as we strive to do just a little better?

In the culture we live in today, lots of people are testy and disagreeable, but why? Allowing a political culture based in Washington DC to make you feel such extreme anger that you end a real friendship with someone from "the other side", you should probably ask yourself that question. It's really time for us to remember who we are; who each other are. We aren't enemies. We are friends and family who just view things a little differently.

Marches and fist-fights and torches and name-calling had their say in 2017. Focusing on people or groups that are easy to disagree with is just like rehearsing the same dinner over and over. The good stuff comes when we go out to the edges and open our mind to experiences we might otherwise miss.

I got reminded of a gentler time in my own life by strolling down memory lane with that little red Christmas book that my husband bought at a garage sale 20 years ago. What an unexpected pleasure it's been.

Water is Not Water When It's Frozen

Winter weather brings a whole new set of issues for livestock drinking water. Limited water intake depresses animal performance quicker and more drastically than any other nutrient. Frozen water sources and improperly functioning automatic waters are major contributors to limiting water intake. Here are a few considerations to keep in mind as we head into colder weather.

- Animals drink water

most readily when the water temperature is between 40 and 65 degrees. Heated waters that overheat can be just as big a problem as frozen water.

- Free choice salt or salt in the diet will serve to increase water consumption and insure adequate hydration. When water is suddenly limited by frozen water sources or improperly functioning water systems, salt toxicity can occur because there is not sufficient water to dilute and eliminate salt in tissues. Clinical signs are usually related to central nervous system malfunction with ataxia, seizures and death.
- Limited water intake is usually manifested in horses as digestive tract disturbances.

NO OTHER MACHINE RAISES THE BAR SO HIGH.

When it comes to precision engineering, the Kubota SSV75 stands head and shoulders above all the rest. A hinge pin height of 128.3 inches provides a reach other skid loaders can only wish for. The proven 74.3 HP Kubota engine adds the muscle, with 5,884 pounds of breakout force. And a wider 36-inch cab entrance, optimized AC and full-suspension seat take productivity to a whole new level.

Sales, Service and Satisfaction Isn't that What it's All About? www.eufaulafordinc.com

ASTROLOGY UPDATE

ARIES (Mar. 21- April 20) Try to convince a good friend to take a holiday with you. Your concern with older family members and those less fortunate than yourself will only add to your attractiveness. You need an outlet that will not only stimulate you but also challenge your intelligence as well.

TAURUS (Apr. 21- May 21) Your fight for those less fortunate is not likely to end in sweet victory. You may find yourself caught in the middle of an argument that has nothing to do with you. You may be in an extremely passionate mood today.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21) Take a look at investment opportunities. Make creative changes to your living quarters. Emotional disputes will only end in sorrow.

CANCER (June 22-July 22) A romantic infatuation from your past may surface if you frequent places that you both used to go. You may find that your generosity has been taken for granted. You mustn't take on other people's responsibilities or you may find yourself irritable and exhausted.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22) You may be overreacting to a situation at hand. Travel for pleasure will be enticing. Passion will be your only answer.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 -Sept. 23) Stretch the truth, and you may get blamed for something you didn't do. Your desire for excitement and adventure may be expensive. Your honesty will not only win you points but also respect.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 -Oct. 23) You can help a close friend find solutions to personal problems. Don't be too quick to judge partners or those you work with. Be sure to use your charm and diplomacy when dealing with potential new clients.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22) Don't be afraid to make a move if you aren't happy with your emotional situation. Travel will be in your best interest regardless of whether it is business or pleasure. You may have problems with those you live with.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 -Dec. 21) Have a heart-to-heart talk with family and find out what the problems are. Try to deal with the problems of those less fortunate; however, don't allow them to make unreasonable demands. Get on with business.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22- Jan. 20) You can make money through your own creative efforts. Your charm will attract members of the opposite sex. Don't count on correspondence to clear up major problems.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 -Feb. 19) Do not travel unless absolutely necessary. Be careful. You will be uncertain of your feelings. Put your time and energy into home improvement.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20) You may find that you're being used. You need time to make things better. Try to be a bit more understanding or you may end up spending the evening alone.
