FUNNY BONE

A man walks in a bar and the bartender asks, "What'll you have?" The man answers, "A scotch on the rocks, please." The bartender hands him the drink, and says, "That'll be five dollars." "What are you talking about? I don't owe you anything for this," the man replies. A lawyer, sitting nearby and overhearing the conversation, then says to the bartender, "You know, he has a point there. In the original offer, which constitutes a binding contract upon acceptance, there was no stipulation of remuneration." The bartender, now ticked off, says to the guy, "Okay, you beat me for this one. But don't ever come back here again!" A few days later, the same man walks into the bar. The bartender says, "What do you think you're doing in here? I can't believe you've got the audacity to come back!" The man says, "What are you talking about? I've never been in this place in my life!" The bartender replies, "I'm very sorry, but this is uncanny. I feel like you were here a few days ago. You must have a double." To which the man replies, "Thank you. Make it a scotch."

A Diner Quickie
A man goes into a restaurant and is seated. All the waitresses are gorgeous. A particularly voluptuous waitress wearing a very short skirt and legs that won't quit came to his table and asked if he was ready to order, "What would you like, sir?" He looks at the menu and then scans her beautiful frame top to bottom, then answers, "A quickie." The waitress turns and walks away in disgust. After she regains her composure she returns and asks again, "What would you like, sir?" Again the man thoroughly checks her out and again answers, "A quickie, please." This time her anger takes over, she reaches over and slaps him across the face with a resounding "SMACK!" and storms away. A man sitting at the next table leans over and whispers, "Um, I think it's pronounced 'QUICHE.'"

The Perfect Diet
A terribly overweight blonde woman goes to her doctor about her weight, so her doctor puts her on a diet. "I want you to eat vegetables and grains for 2 days, then skip a day, and repeat this procedure for 2 weeks. The next time I see you, you will have lost at least 5 pounds." When the blonde returned, she shocked the doctor by losing nearly 20 pounds. "Why, that's amazing!" the doctor said, "Did you follow my instructions?" The blonde nodded. "I'll tell you though, I thought I was going to drop dead that third day." "From hunger, you mean?" "No, from skipping."

What do you call someone who doesn't like carbs?
Lack-Toast Intolerant.

A man walks into a bar and it's empty - it's just him and the bartender. He sits down and orders a drink. He hears someone whisper, "Pssst...I like your tie." The man looks around but doesn't see anyone. "Pssst...that color looks nice on you." He asks the bartender, "Excuse me, but...are you speaking to me?" The bartender rolls his eyes and says, "No, sorry about that. It's the peanuts... they're complimentary."

Why did the birthday boy wrap himself in paper?
He wanted to live in the present.

I am sitting here watching our current so called vice president lie through her teeth, I have never seen anything quite so fake in my life. I cannot believe the American people have put her in a position of power. Thank you

Hard to believe the democrats under Pelosi under her puppet regime have got bills unbelievable gun bills now. I hope those that voted for that are happy.

We all need to wake up to this stimulus bill, it is only a pork bill for Pelosi and her puppets for their favorite waste money. If this were a true stimulus bill you would not get a measly $1,400 you would get a $14,000 check, because this stimulus thing is only less than 10% to help on the virus. The rest is almost pure pork.

Anyone notice Oprah's lipstick matched Her Tongue color in the Royal's interview. Am I missing something, is it a choice. Very strange

I ran across the information about the very first female that took the Covid shot and she said she wished she had never taken it, saying how sick she was now. She was a totally healthy person that got very ill. If you know how to find this please let me know as I cannot find it now.

I would like to say I cannot think of a greater honor to have bestowed upon you as to be one of Speaker Pelosi's puppets.

Way to go Airlines! They can continue to spread the virus while cruises have to sit in port with the best protocols in the world. Something needs to be done about the air travel issue!

The Bachelor drama is complete BS. I am so sick of people making everything about race. As a proud black woman, I am more upset that Martin Luther King's dedication and hard work and ultimate sacrifice has been forgotten! Wake up! Stop all of this please.

I believe the Bachelor and Bachelorette days are numbered. This has to have been the worst season ever! The girl from the Bachelor was canceled for going to a frat party. Cardi B was not canceled for drugging and robbing men, by her own admission. She committed a series of violent crimes against other humans and it is considered not as serious as the frat party. That's where we are.

Did anyone else see the Grammy's? Things have gotten completely out of hand here. Turning it all off.

Come on Stimulus check!! Fixing to stock up on booze for the year!

Who else is seeing where we all are headed?

I for one refused the stimulus check. I will not take part in helping destroy our country for a whopping $1400. Sadly most will take the money and run with it.

How does someone like Joy Behar even get on TV? She is an extreme leftist and just an all around bad person. Now she claims Anifa is not a real thing? She has to be canceled.

We all should just delete Facebook and Twitter. They are media nazi's and so many idiots buy into everything they push on their platforms. American's need to cancel both platforms.

WEEKLY MARKET REPORT

Compared to last week: Heavy rain across the trade area kept receipts too low to establish a trend, however a lower undertone is noted on both steers and heifers. Demand good. Quality average thru good. Slaughter cows 3.00 lower in a light test. Slaughter bulls 2.00 lower also in a light test. A total of 139 cows and bulls sold with 56 percent going to packers. Supply included: 90% Feeder Cattle (38% Steers, 54% Heifers, 8% Bulls); 8% Slaughter Cattle (79% Cows, 21% Bulls); 2% Replacement Cattle (59% Bred Cows, 9% Bred Heifers, 32% Cow-Calf Pairs). Feeder cattle supply over 600 lbs was 24%.

USDA Invests $598 Million to Improve and Modernize Rural Electric Infrastructure After Severe Weather and Age Test the Grid

The U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) announced today a $598 million rural electric loan package to build or improve electric infrastructure in 11 states (PDF, 119 KB). "The Biden-Harris administration is committed to bringing critical financial assistance to rural families and making significant investments in community infrastructure across rural America," said Agriculture Secretary Tom Vilsack. "These USDA investments will bring affordable electric power to rural residents, Tribal communities, community facilities, schools and medical institutions that perform critical services each day. Now is the time for our nation to make significant investments in infrastructure — roads, bridges, broadband and energy — to improve quality of life and support good-paying jobs, transition to a clean energy economy, and keep the United States poised to lead the global economy." Background:

USDA is investing in 11 projects through the Electric Loan Program. This funding will benefit 460,000 rural residents and businesses in Arizona, Kentucky, Maine, Minnesota, Missouri, New Mexico, North Dakota, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Utah and Virginia. Several of the loans will help expand smart grid technologies, which can be a catalyst for broadband and other telecommunications services in unserved and underserved rural areas.

Below are some examples of how the funds will be used: The Navajo Tribal Utility Authority, headquartered in Fort Defiance, Ariz., will use a $235 million loan to connect 1,340 consumers and build and improve 636 miles of line throughout the reservation. This loan will also fund transmission expansions and upgrades, and the construction of warehouse and headquarters facilities throughout the reservation. The funding will be used to acquire 5,337 consumers and build 144 miles of transmission line and 221 miles of distribution line near Tuba City and on the Hopi Reservation. Also, $29.4 million of this loan will go to smart grid technologies, including 304 miles of backbone fiber and 27 miles of customer drops. In Maine, ASP2 Rural LLC will use a $7.7 million loan to develop three solar photovoltaic facilities. The three projects are: Caribou Solar, a 964.6 kilowatt project in Caribou; Dirt Solar, a 3,937 kilowatt project in Skowhegan; and Freeport Solar, a 982.2 kilowatt project in Fairfield. In Missouri, the Intercounty Electric Cooperative Association will use a $15 million loan to connect 1,955 consumers and build and improve 136 miles of line. This loan includes $432,000 in smart grid technologies. Intercounty serves approximately 30,000 customers through 5,700 miles of line in nine counties in the state. USDA's Electric Loan Program helps finance wind, solar and natural gas plants, as well as improvements to produce clean energy from coal-fired plants. Local utilities also use the loans to invest in infrastructure to deliver affordable power to millions of residential, commercial and agricultural consumers.

FARMER FUNNIES

A carload of hunters, on holiday, were looking for a place to hunt, pulled into a farmer's yard in County Waterford, Ireland. The driver, Brannagh, went up to the farmhouse to ask permission to hunt on the farmer's land. Earth Day Jokes The old farmer said, 'Sure you can hunt, but would you be doing me a favour? That old donkey standing over there is 20 years old and sick with cancer, but I don't have the heart to kill her. Would you do it for me?' Brannagh replied, 'Of course I will,' and strolled back to the car. While walking back, however, Brannagh decided to play a trick on his hunting friends. He got into the car and when they asked if the farmer had said if it was alright, he said, 'No, we can't hunt here, but I'm going to teach that old fellow a lesson he won't forget.' With that, the Irishman rolled down his window, stuck his gun out and shot the donkey. As he shouted, 'To be sure, that will teach him,' a second shot rang out from the passenger side and one of his hunting mates yelled, 'And me, begorra, I got the cow.'

WE ENDED IT HOW FAST? DID YOU KNOW THAT?

Man. It's been a rough couple of months! In this little space, I have shared lots of stories of frustration and indignation about the direction we are going as a country. But I do have good news! Despite how the celebrities, athletes, politicians and media try to convince us that our country is irredeemably flawed, it's just not true.

By: Gina Stanley

It's time to start bragging on the USA. We keep hearing that our heritage is slavery and that the ramifications of that horrific past make us a racist country in need of work, repair, change. Dramatic change. But let's take a look at what really has transpired in the past 250 years.

Despite slavery being around since the dawn of time, it only took one year to start the march toward no slavery in our country. Vermont was the first state to abolish slavery in 1777 after embracing the verbiage of the Constitution.

In 1787 George Washington declared no new slaves brought into the country moving forward and placed a 20-year moratorium on states to do their own abolishing. In 1807 during his presidency, Thomas Jefferson required the remaining northern states to end slavery within their borders. This demand came from a man who did own slaves. But the beauty is he acknowledged the moral greater good and instituted a change that would change his own life. Isn't that movement toward what is right that we should celebrate?

Despite this record, today's college students overwhelmingly believe that slavery began in the United States and was almost exclusively an American issue. Professor Duke Pesta, University of Wisconsin, gives his incoming students a quiz about this topic. While they have typically demonstrated a "formidable level of ignorance", in recent years their responses are more politicized, almost as if they have been pre-programmed. While they are not able to talk about historical facts or events, they are indignant about the "wickedness of the founding fathers and the corruption of the Republic." But perhaps even more alarming is that they have no grasp of how Marxist and Communist ideologies have affected the last century, while happily defining socialism as fair and equitable. On top of that, most of the students can identify Thomas Jefferson as a slave owner but not a president. It would seem that the ramifications of slavery don't hold a candle to the shoddy education our children are getting.

The truth is, the USA does not have even close to the worst history of slavery. In fact, it was the second country to abolish it completely, only behind Denmark-Norway and just in front of Great Britain. But why did it take so long to abolish it completely? Why did we have to have a civil war to get it done? Before I answer that, let's take a look at some other countries. Africa began slave markets in the 600's and didn't end the practice until the early 1900s. To this day there are still slaves in more than a dozen countries. But in the United States, less than one hundred years after its founding, citizens in this country were fighting and dying over that heinous human rights issue. Many families chose the greater moral good over family loyalty as brothers were pitted against brother in combat. The fabric of the entire country was changed in a historically short time and people were freed because of the massive undertaking by leaders and citizens alike. That is something that should be celebrated not demonized. That is what Trump meant when he said Make American Great Again. Not reinstating slavery as some ridiculous pundits have slandered. But being grateful that we live in a country that hasn't seen a slave in nearly 170 years.

ASTROLOGY UPDATE

Aries (March 21-April 20) New methods and innovative technology will make your job far easier than you anticipated. Limitations at work might set you back. Passion will be your only answer. Put some energy into getting back into shape

Taurus (April 21-May 20) Entertainment should include sports events or physical activities. Travel will be exciting. Go after your goals. Be careful not to get involved in other people's personal affairs.

Gemini (May 21-June 21) You may want to sign up for lectures or courses that will bring you mental stimulation. Travel will be fun and entertaining. Your persuasive nature will win the heart of someone you've had your eye on.

Cancer (June 22-July 22) You have to believe in yourself and your talents. Complete those hobbies you started a long time ago. Don't be afraid to pursue unfamiliar grounds. Your high energy will enable you to take the role of leader in group functions.

Leo (July 23-August 22) You will find yourself tied to the phone. If you try to manipulate emotional situations you will find yourself alienated. You'll find you're detail oriented this week. Do something together and you'll be surprised how sweet a deal you can make.

Virgo (August 23-September 22) Your stubborn nature will backfire if you give your mate an ultimatum. You are best to be discreet. Chances are you split up the last time because you didn't really want to make a commitment.

Libra (September 23-October 22) Talk to someone you trust in order to see the whole picture. You may find that someone you live with may be irritable; you're best to leave them alone. Try to put your money away for a rainy day. Your lover will be annoyed with your participation.

Scorpio (October 23-November 21) You may be the recipient of false information. You have the ability to motivate others. People who try to persuade you to do things their way will annoy you.

Sagittarius (November 22-December 20) You will do well with clients this week. Sudden changes concerning coworkers may surprise you. Pamper yourself for a change.

Capricorn (December 21-January 19) You'd be wise to control your spending so your debts don't get out of hand. Try to bend to their wishes if you want to avoid conflict. Make changes that will enhance your appearance.

Aquarius (January 20-February 18) Look into attending seminars that can expand your perception. Don't hesitate to look for alternatives that will enable you to raise the kind of donations you need to do the job right.

Pisces (February 19-March 20) Such over indulgence due to emotional upset will be your downfall. You can make financial deals, but it may be best if you're not using your own cash. Your mate may not have been honest with you.

Care for your land. For a price that cares for your wallet.
